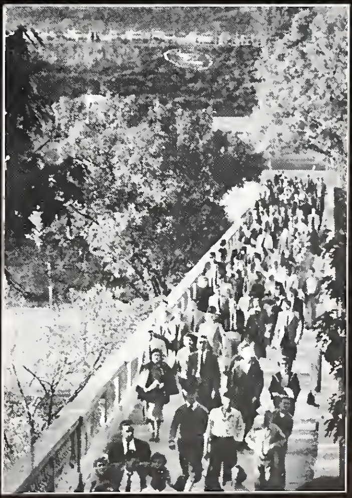
WASHINGTON AND LEE SWING

Come, cheer for Washington and Lee,
We're going to win another victory.
The White and Blue we will ever wave in triumph
For the University. Rah Rah Rah

Fight to the finish, we are with you,
Break through the line on every play,
Rush the ball on down the field,
And we will win this game today.



Chorus

When Washington and Lee's men fall in line
We're going to win again another time.
For W. and L., I yell, I yell, I yell.
And for the University I yell, I yell,
And we will fight, fight, fight for every yard,
Circle the ends and hit the line right hard,
And we will roll those Wahoos on the sod.
Rah Rah Rah

COLLEGE FRIENDSHIPS

Our college friendships soon must sever,
And fade as does the dying day,
Our closest bonds must all be broken,
As through this world we wend our way.
But yet—whatever be life's fortunes,
Though friendships fail and friends be few,
We'll love thee still, our Alma Mater,
Our dear old W. and L. U.

WASHINGTON AND LEE

LUCIUS JUNIUS DESHA

Dedication

To summarize our love and respect for a man is indeed difficult and perhaps even impossible. A great man's life is too full, too vast in scope and depth for us to even hope to compress it into such a brief commentary. We have known you for only four years and even that short time sounds deceptively long since few of us have spent more than a part of our time under your guidance. We have enjoyed your smile and greeting when we passed you on the colonnade, your pipe smoking furiously and your pace much quicker than our own. We have even shared our dance sets with you since no dance would be complete without you and your wife beaming approval from that much maligned yet sacred ground known as the chaperon's box. You are, in reality, a part of all our campus life.

Some of us have enjoyed the privilege of knowing you well. They have seen you give time and energy from a seemingly endless store, all directed toward us, our problems and our University. They have read the letters you wrote to worried families and heartsick students; letters which we all say that it would be "nice to write" but so seldom do. They know personally the extent of your love and sympathy. They know your goals and standards and the discipline which is no less strong for being sympathetic. Those of us have been privileged indeed to know you this well.

For the majority of us, however, you have been more a friend than a class-room teacher. We have no way of knowing how much you have directed our lives through your work in directing our University but we know nevertheless, that some part of your wisdom has become a part of each of us.

Therefore, it is with genuine love and humility and in full awareness of the great debt which we all owe to you that we dedicate this book to you, DR. LUCIUS J. DESHA, knowing full well that the goals of the University which it symbolizes and the goals which you have exhibited in your own life are, in the end, identical.

The President's Message

To the Seniors:

If I were permitted but one word in this greeting, that would be a word of thanks. You have paid this University high compliment in bringing to our custody for a time much of your promise for the future. I hope you have found among us those who have so interpreted, so inspired, that the promise is nearer fulfillment.

As you go steadfastly to accomplishment of your nobler purposes, you will find this book, I predict, a little treasure chest of memory. Looking upon the pictures of people and places that entered prominently into this phase of your life, you will have pleasure and you may have enlarged power. I hope this University remains in your remembrance, to come back to you "like music."

Francis P. Gaines
President.

As the main agency of student self-government at Washington and Lee, the Student Body Executive Committee supervises and exercises a controlling influence over all student activities; however, its most important function is interpretation of the Honor System. Presided over by the President of the Student Body, the Committee also includes a Vice-President and a Secretary, two elected members from the Senior Class, an elected member from each of the classes in the academic and law schools, and an elected member from the Publications Board.

Mr. Russell Ladd III
Editor: THE CALYX
Washington and Lee University
Lexington, Va.

Dear Russell:

Can't tell you how honored I was to be asked to judge for THE CALYX. And what a difficult decision it was - really a BEAUTY contest!

After the previous batch, this picture is an awful anticlimax - but since you ask, here it is.

I'm sure this year's CALYX will be a grand one - you have my every good wish.

Cordially,

Garry Moore

The Southern Collegians

Informal Singing Group

In the early months of 1955 the need at W. and L. for a small singing group which would represent a cross-section of the University and which could be well organized without losing the informal casualness of a group of men gathered around the piano to harmonize was fulfilled when Jim Lewis, after three years of planning, together with eight other talented W. and L. men, started the informal singing group soon to be known as the SAZERACS.

The SAZERACS' future aims are for closer, more modern and unique harmony, springtime performances in resort cities, and world fame, of course!

Reserve Officers Training Corps

Lt. Col. Coates being received by Dr. Gaines

The Washington and Lee detachment of the Reserve Officers Training Corps began its second college generation during the 1955-56 session. In the five years that the unit has been active on the campus, it has grown from a small Transportation Corps department, into a military detachment of such size and scope that it includes almost half of the Washington and Lee student body.

Having recently adopted a Branch General program instead of the more specialized Transportation curriculum, the Military Science Department is able to prepare its students so that each will be in a better position to serve in the branch of his choice. The Branch General program provides a firm foundation in the major fields of military science, rather than specific training in one particular service.

Washington and Lee's ROTC unit began its second generation under a new Professor of Military Science and Tactics. Lt. Col. Richard W. Jones, who guided the department through its first formative years, was succeeded by Lt. Col. Charles E. Coates, an infantry officer and a graduate of the United States Military Academy. Maj. John P. Bodkin and 1st Lt. Claud E. Eley have also joined the detachment in recent months, to bring the cadre teaching staff to near capacity strength.

Nor are the activities of the department limited to the classroom. The Gaines Guard, Washington and Lee's precision drill team, has won constant recognition since its inception; the Rifle Team has increased its schedule of firing matches and has improved its record of victories; the ROTC band has become a virtual tradition at Washington and Lee, whether in a military parade or a University concert.

Battalion Staff

Thus the Washington and Lee ROTC unit has grown and developed over the years. Aside from the specific military training it offers to its students, the ROTC program presents to the men on the campus numerous outlets for leadership and creative ability. As a result of this steady growth and development, it can truthfully be said that the unit has taken its place beside the major departments of the University.

1956 marks the centennial of the founding of Rho Chapter of Beta Theta Pi on the Washington College campus. The original Chapter survived only a few years, until 1860, when war forced it temporarily to disband. Sixteen years later Beta Theta Pi left Washington and Lee, to return again in 1921, when the Trident Club became the present Alpha Rho Chapter.

The Betas of 1956 have followed well in the footsteps of their Brothers of past years. Diversity and success have again characterized their efforts in campus activities. Russell Ladd had the unique honor of serving as Editor-in-Chief of the 1956 CALYX in his junior year. Other Betas who worked with Russell include Greig Cummungs, Fraternities Co-Editor; Archie Jenkins, Assistant Fraternities Editor; Tom Litzenburg, Class Co-Editor; Farris Hotchkiss, Assistant Activities Editor; John Croker, Sports Co-Editor, and Dave Noble, Feature Section Editor.

On the Tuesday Ring-tum Phi, Tom Litzenburg was Managing Editor and Farris Hotchkiss, Assistant News Editor. Tom was also a member of the Christian Council and the Cold Check Committee; he and Russell Ladd were the Fraternity's two Freshman Dormitory Councilors of 1955-56. Russell was also tapped by ODK of which Jack Osborne was Vice-President. Jack was also President of the Senior Law Class and on the Board of Governors. John Moreman was Vice-President of the Intermediate Law Class. In other fields we found Dave Owen sharing the Associate Editorship of the W&L Handbook with Tom Litzenburg; John Binford was Assistant Varsity Basketball Manager, and Greig Cummings was a member of the Assimilation Committee and Blue Key Society. The Betas, socially as well as academically, had a very successful year with Paul Krogh as Social Chairman and John Larson leading the House academically with a consistent 3.00.

Behind the footlights and backstage at the Troub Theater were Butch Callaway, Jim Hill, John Howard, and Ray Stults, all of whom played roles in the November production of "Much Ado About Nothing." On the Washington and Lee sports scene were Phil Brown, Joe Cambria, and Tom Moore of the Varsity Football squad, Bob Levy in wrestling, and Dick Crutchfield and Hutch Hutchinson in cross country. As usual, Betas ranked high on the lacrosse team, which included Dick O'Connell, Dave Noble, and John Croker.

This year both the Chapter and its House Mother have observed important anniversaries. Mrs. Martin has completed ten years of providing that final touch of excellence to Alpha Rho. Her Betas, past and present, find it very difficult to express their thanks for a job well done. They can only hope that many more Brothers of the future will know her as "Mom."

Ninety-six years ago, a group of undergraduates at Bethany College, in what is now West Virginia, decided to start a college fraternity. They did, and from that beginning has grown Delta Tau Delta, a national fraternity with chapters in most major universities in the United States and Canada. Phi Chapter was founded at Washington and Lee in 1896. Since that time, the Delts have been known on campus for their leadership in all fields.

The Phi Chapter men of 1955-56 were no exception. Bob Huntly was elected Vice-President of the Student Body, Carl Bailey was elected President of the Senior Class, and Ted Kerr Vice-President of the Junior Class. Noel Spence was Head Dorm Counselor, Bill Henley Chairman of the Dance Board, and Clay Carr President of the Christian Council. Ted Kerr was on the Steering Committee for the Mock Convention. Gibby McSpadden was Battalion Executive Officer in the ROTC. Ted Kerr was Commander of the Gaines Guard. Don Stine was a Company Commander, Jim Lewis and Clay Carr Company Executives. Gibby and Don were Distinguished Military Students as well as members of Scabbard and Blade. Clay was also a Distinguished Military Student and Jim, a member of Scabbard and Blade. Ted won two medals for his leadership in the ROTC.

Bob Huntley, Ted Kerr and Clay Carr were elected to ODK, as was Jim Farrar, Assistant Dean of the University and a Phi Chapter alumnus. Bob, Clay and Bill Henley were named to "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." Clay Carr was associate editor of the Southern Collegian and columnist for the Friday Ring-tum Phi. Keith Belch was sports columnist for the Friday edition. Buck Buchanan and Bill Henley were on SWMSFC, and Arnold Groobey was chosen for the Cold Check Committee. Groobey, Rich Berry, and Clay Carr were members of Phi Eta Sigma.

Jim Lewis captained the soccer team for the third straight year, and Don Stine was co-captain of the football team. Delts played every sport and won five varsity trophies. Gibby McSpadden won the Southern Conference 167-lb. wrestling championship for the second straight time. Ted Kerr was Southern Conference golf medalist by ten strokes.

Right behind us in all of this was our House Mother, Mrs. Smith, and our advisor, Mr. James Farrar. They gave that added push needed so badly. Yes, 1955-56 was a good year for Phi Chapter.

Founded at Williams College in 1834, Delta Upsilon has prospered over the years under the banner of non-secrecy. The Washington and Lee Chapter was established in 1930 and through a spirit of brotherhood and endeavor has maintained a prominent position on this campus. During her two years with us, our House Mother, Mrs. Virginia McWhorter, has endeared herself to the brothers. Her contribution of friendliness, sympathy, and human understanding and her grace and charm has enriched our lives. "Mrs. Mac" has been an integral part of our life here at the House and has served as a perfect hostess during her stay.

Emphasizing leadership, versatility, and character, Delta Upsilon's membership includes the following campus leaders: Dale Cornelius who made ODK and "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Bill Williams, who also made ODK, is Editor of the Ring-tum Phi and was a Freshman Camp Counselor. Others on the Ring-tum Phi are Jerry Susskind, Sports Editor of the Tuesday Edition and reporters Herb Hummers, Lash LaRue and Dick Mauter along with Columnist Max Caskie. Max also represented Washington and Lee on the Quiz Bowl Team and is on the Shenandoah. Herb is a Dorm Counselor and is on the Tennis Team.

In athletics, John Pipkin and Dan Cox played on the football team while Mike Barry, John Manning and Bill Harrison ran Cross Country. Dom Flora, last year's outstanding freshman guard, continues to star on the Basketball Team. Also with Dom is Gene Girard, a former All-Europe basketball player. Jerry Susskind is on the Wrestling Team and John Turner and Frank Hoopes are on the Baseball Team.

Achieving distinction in all phases of campus life, DU finished second in the combined intercollegiate, intramural program competition. DU placed six men on the academic Honor Roll and 13 on the Dean's List. The three big social events are the Christmas House Party, the Spring Costume Party, and May Open House.

Occupying one of the finest houses on campus, the W. and L. Chapter prides itself on close cooperation with its alumni. Dr. Allan E. Ragan, Chapter Advisor, has greatly aided this work in his many years of devoted service. Other DU's on the faculty include Mr. R. N. Latture, Mr. Edwin Howard, Dr. G. H. Foster, and Coaches Twombly and Miller.

With much achievement to look back on, Delta Upsilon looks forward to a future of success as it continues to fill the need for a spirit of brotherhood.

Alpha Chapter of Kappa Alpha Order was founded in December of 1865 at Washington and Lee by four students and has the special distinction of being the first Chapter of the Order. The four student founders met in the room of William Walsh in the South Dormitory of the College, which is now Robinson Hall. In 1868 the Beta Chapter of the Order was founded at V.M.I. As the Fraternity expanded, Alpha found she could not control all of the new chapters, so a national headquarters was established at Louisville, Kentucky. Under the influence of Robert E. Lee, who was then President of Washington College, the order developed and expanded throughout the South. Kappa Alpha owes much of its tradition and idealism to Lee, who is considered our spiritual founder.

The KA's have won the Scholarship Trophy five out of the last seven semesters. We have also had a well rounded social life, with all the brothers having had a lot of fun this year. John Stump is on the Executive Committee for the second year in a row. Cliff Smith has been very active in intercollegiate debating, and Brother Doug Buck represented Washington and Lee in the intercollegiate Moot Court competition. The KA House is represented in just about every extracurricular organization on the campus. As usual we have participated wholeheartedly in Intramurals which helped to keep our bodies in shape.

With Dr. W. M. Hinton as Faculty Advisor, and Mrs. J. M. Lewis as our fine House Mother, Alpha Chapter has maintained an excellent record. It is even more significant, however, that the members find the Fraternity a source of lasting friendship, which is the basis of a wholesome social life.

Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Virginia in 1869; Mu Chapter was established at W&L as the third organized Chapter, in 1873. Kappa Sigma has 127 Chapters throughout the nation, boasting more than 65,000 members. Mu began the new year by pledging 20 freshmen during Rush Week and another during deferred rushing.

Outstanding members in campus activities were Ellis Drew, Student Body President; Jerry Hopkins, Editor of the Ring-tum Phi and Associate Editor of The Southern Collegian. Others on the newspaper were Bill Miller, News Editor; Lloyd Dobyns, Feature Editor and several freshmen as reporters. Jim Jeter was Senior Class Historian; Dave Henderson, Independent Party Chairman; Owen Harned, Business Manager of the Shenandoah; John Williamson, Business Manager of The Law Review; Charles Humpton, Secretary of the Cotillion Club.

Bob Blair was on the varsity football team and Charlie Richardson and Jim Stofer were on the starting soccer team. Joe Stevens was on the cross-country and track teams and Willard Hyde starred in baseball. Intramurally, Kappa Sigma captured the golf championship and three weight-class titles in wrestling.

Socially the year was one of the most prominent in Mu Chapter's history. We honored our sweetheart at the annual Black and White Ball and we made more than the usual number of outings to Goshen, Cave Mountain Lake, and Dalthout State Park.

Our House Mother, Mrs. Jordan, helped us through our social and everyday house-life with grace and charm. Mrs. "J" has been an integral part of our lives here at the House for eight years. Acting as Faculty Advisor while Dr. Buford Stevenson is on a leave of absence, was Dr. Felix P. Welch. Other prominent members were Jerry Hopkins who was tapped by ODK and elected to Sigma Delta Chi. Forensic Union participants were Brooks Pollock and Bill Miller. Kappa Sigma was represented on the Gaines Guard by seven men and in just about every campus activity—sports, publications, literary and musical and dramatic.

With the passing of the year, we look back with pride and pleasure, knowing the Chapter has again fulfilled its purpose as a fraternity.

In the short 47 years since Lambda Chi Alpha was founded at Boston University, the fraternity has grown into the largest fraternity in the world. Lambda Chi was installed at Washington and Lee in 1921, and since then the local chapter itself has installed chapters at Duke and North Carolina.

The local chapter is housed in W&L's newest fraternity house, built for the chapter in 1939, and tailored to its needs. The house contains an ever-expanding reference library, a pool room, muraled bar, secret chapter room, and other features; it has been cited nationally as an outstanding example of fraternity housing.

As in the past, Lambda Chi's played key roles in campus activities. "C. J." Baldree was Mock Convention liaison to the Democratic Party, editor of the "W&L Lawyer," secretary of Phi Alpha Delta and member of the Board of Governors of the Law School; Ron Fast became vice-president of his class, member of the Assimilation Committee, and an organizer of Blue Key; Bill Grigg is the originator and producer of a bi-weekly radio program from the W&L campus, editor of the daily Home Edition, and columnist for the national magazine, "Science News Letter;" Joe Ripley, Jere Williams, and Bob Shepherd led the debate team in its first winning streak in several years.

In athletics, Gus Glauser set several pool records in swimming; Mauricio Glauser was outstanding in tennis; Lee Braddock in soccer; Al Gitter starred in football; Dennis Patton was a winning wrestler; Joe Knakal and Al Gitter pitched the baseball team to its only wins.

Scholastically the picture is again very good, with Al Gitter, Ron Fast, Jere Williams, Art Warner, Peyton Middleton, and Bob Lowe being awarded scholarships, and the over-all house average rising toward the number one spot. The intramural rank is good, and, like scholarship, getting even better. Socially, the annual Apache party, the Pajama Game party, and the Founders Day Fling highlighted a successful year.

Though diverse in interests, the members of Lambda Chi are united, especially in their respect and gratefulness to their house mother, Mrs. Bess Smith, affectionately called "Smitty" by "her boys."

Virginia Zeta of Phi Delta Theta was established at Washington and Lee in 1887, 39 years after Phi Delta Theta was founded at Oxford, Ohio in 1848. The present House was built in 1929 with the invaluable assistance of Earl S. Mattingly, Secretary of the Board of Trustees and Treasurer of the University. We have been most fortunate in having Mrs. Lucy Booker Burlingame, or Mrs. "B," as she is affectionately called, for the Phi House Mother since 1942. A great deal of the past successes of Virginia Zeta can be attributed to her, and her untiring aid and sympathetic assistance to every member of the Chapter have never passed by unappreciated.

The members of Phi Delta Theta have as individuals spread themselves throughout all phases of campus life as leaders in almost all athletic scholastic, and extra-curricular organizations. Our President, Gordon Gooch is Corps Commander of the ROTC, producer of the Minstrel Show, past chairman of the SWMSFC, President of Phi Eta Sigma, a member of ODK, selected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," and has achieved the Outstanding Phi from Virginia award. Dave Simpson is past Chairman of the University Party and was a member of the Steering Committee for the Mock Convention. Ed Hood is Editor of the literary magazine Shenandoah. Dewey Oxner is Executive Committeeman from the Freshman Class of Law School and on the University Committee on Athletics. Dickey Johnson was co-captain of the football team and has been a valuable member of the lacrosse team for the past three years. Al Platt is Secretary of the Junior Class, Dormitory Counselor, a prominent member of the football team, and on the University Committee on Athletics; Bill Northrop is Sports Editor of the Ring-tum Phi and a member of the wrestling team.

Phi Delta Theta takes special pride as always, in this year's pledge class. They have been very active in campus life, and they are one of the most promising classes to appear in several years. Virginia Zeta's achievements have been greatly enhanced by the encouragement and help of the new faculty advisor Dr. Harvey Wheeler.

Among the many and varied activities include some of the finer and more memorable social events of the year. Parties have taken the theme of Bavarian Sky Lodge, a Hawaiian beach, and many others. Year after year the great success of Virginia Zeta can only be attributed to the full and willing cooperation of all the Brothers.

Phi Epsilon Pi, founded at the College of the City of New York in 1904, has grown in many directions and now embraces the campuses of 38 colleges and universities, Delta Chapter was chartered here December 17, 1920. Since that time Phi Ep has won the scholarship trophy more times than any other fraternity on the W&L campus. Mrs. William C. Flournoy, affectionately known to the members of the House as "Mom," has been House Mother for the past sixteen years, except during the war years when the House was temporarily closed. She has become dear to scores of Phi Eps who have graduated from the University.

At the National Convention of Phi Epsilon Pi, Delta Chapter received the Phi Ep Activities Award, given to the fraternity chapter which is most active in student affairs on its respective campus. This year two members of Phi Epsilon Pi were on the Executive Committee. Mike Dubin, a senior pre-med student, besides serving on the Executive Committee, is President of Alpha Epsilon Delta, pre-med fraternity, and was elected to "Who's Who." Ron Rubin, the Freshman Executive Committeeman, has served on the Freshman Advisory Committee, and is Pledge Class President of the Fraternity.

The athletic picture was also bright for Phi Ep. Junior Barry Storick captained Washington and Lee's Five Star Generals, succeeding last year's basketball captain, Senior Dick Skolnik. Skolnik was elected Captain of the 1956 General's Baseball Team. Also starting on the cager squad was Junior Milt Winawer. Joel Bernstein, who played in the North-South Lacrosse game in Palm Beach, Florida, was on W&L's lacrosse squad along with Mike Masinter and Elliot Joffe. In addition Mike Dubin, a letter winner, and Steve Berg are out for the baseball squad.

Don Luria, president of the Fraternity, has served as treasurer of the Interfraternity Council and as a member of the Assimilation Committee. Steve Nachman added much to this year's SWMSFC Minstrel Show and Peter Jacobs' movie review column was well-received in the Ring-tum Phi. Andy Greeman, editor-elect of the Ring-tum Phi, served this year as publicity advisor to several campus organizations, as well as president of Sigma Delta Chi, journalism fraternity.

Many members of Phi Epsilon Pi played an active part in campus affairs during 1955 and with this record look forward to next year for continuing success on the Washington and Lee campus.

In their eighty-ninth year on the Washington and Lee campus, the members of the Zeta Deuteron Chapter of Phi Gamma Delta continued to maintain the high standards of fraternity brotherhood as formulated by its founders. The handsome white house on Preston Street remains one of the centers of campus activity. Phi Gams may be found leading the way in nearly every phase of Washington and Lee life.

Sam Syme, as president of ODK and the Secretary-Treasurer of the Executive Committee, culminated his college years with outstanding service to the University. Sam was further honored this year with his selection for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," as was Wiley Wright, a fellow initiate of ODK. Emmett Kelley helped start out the W&L social season as president of Opening Dances. Sophomore Jim Van Cleave ably assisted Emmet as a vice-president of the dance set and continued working through the year as IFC Social Chairman and Publicity Manager of the Southern Collegian. John Buckey and Hardin Marion each were honored by election to class offices. John also served on the Assimilation Committee and Hardin joined Syme as a Freshman Dorm Counselor.

A third member of ODK, Jack McQuiggan, not only announced the pageantry of Fancy Dress and directed the '56 Minstrel Show, but also worked as president of the Troubadours, as they brought to the campus a successful dramatic season. Also extremely active in the Troubs this year were Barnes, Smith, and Dixon.

Frank Guenther and Dick Butrick served as captains of the swimming and tennis teams, respectively. Also participating in intercollegiate sports were a goodly number of Fijis. Bob Curran directed the fraternity's intramural activities to their usual successful conclusion. Naturally the Phi Gam parties led the way on weekends with Bill Burns at the helm as Social Chairman, climaxing the year with the famed Fiji Island Party.

The Fiji Freshman Class was one of the largest and finest on campus. The leadership potentialities of the new men became more apparent as the year progressed. Also a newcomer to the Chapter was Mrs. Virginia Smith, our House Mother. She has further enhanced the fraternity's reputation for warm hospitality with her charming manner and personality.

Thus the Chapter progressed through the year in its dedication to the ideals of Phi Gamma Delta.

Virginia Beta of Phi Kappa Psi this year began its second century on the Washington and Lee campus. Founded in February, 1855, the Chapter celebrated its centennial last year, and is the third oldest Chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi National Fraternity, which was founded at Washington and Jefferson College in 1852.

The Chapter, which this year pledged seventeen men, now stands among the top fraternities at W. and L. in all phases of University activity. Virginia Beta is above the all-men's average scholastically, and stands high in varsity and intramural sports participation. Outstanding among this year's Phi Psi's were: Stu Atkinson, Vice-President of the Inter-Fraternity Council and Varsity Basketball; Ned Grove, President of Finals Dances and Sports Editor of the Ring-tum Phi; Art McCain, Phi Beta Kappa and Varsity Tennis Captain; Tom Salsbury, Varsity football, baseball and basketball manager; Fred Stamp, Secretary of the Publications Board and Business Manager of the Southern Collegian; Bob Miller, President of the Junior Class and Varsity Wrestling; Charles Swope, President of the Law School Freshmen Class; Charles Dobbs, Dormitory Counselor and Honor Roll; John Sinwell, Vice-President of the University Dance Board and Varsity Tennis; and John Peale, Vice-President of the Sophomore Class and the Executive Committee of the Christian Council.

Socially, this past year was one of the most prominent in Virginia Beta's history. During the fall, the Chapter held several houseparties, including the annual Champagne Party just before the Christmas vacation. Phi Psi's also made more than the usual number of trips to Goshen and Twin Falls during the spring. The success of the House's social activities is of course due to Mrs. Carroll Evans, whose graciousness and charm have added so much to fraternity life.

Phi Kappa Psi is proud of the part it has played in the past, and confident that it will continue to serve Washington and Lee in the future.

Phi Kappa Sigma was founded at the University of Pennsylvania in 1850, and was introduced to Washington and Lee University in 1894. Throughout its sixty years of existence on the W&L campus, Phi Kappa Sigma has produced an amazing number of campus leaders. It has earned a strong reputation for fraternity and Chapter spirit, and has constantly contributed outstanding members to variuos intercollegiate athletic teams.

Phi Kaps have distinguished themselves in every activity on the campus, as well as in Intercollegiate and Intramural athletics, and in the past year they attained several major honors in extra-curricular fields: Pat Collins was among the W&L students selected for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." In the literary field Tom Akin is feature editor of the Ring-tum Phi. Bob Boernstein, Joe Amato, and Tom Aiken, are on the editorial staff of the Southern Collegian. Larry Smith and Charlie McCormick are active members of the Graham-Lee Society. Several Brothers are active members of Washington and Lee's Glee Club. Phi Kappa Sigma was well represented on a large number of the varsity athletic teams. In football, Earl Gillespie, Lee Brantley, Dean McKnight, Rupe Chisholm, Roger Bond, and Tad Wisdom were varsity players. Earl Gillespie won the most outstanding player of the year award. "K. K." Hill is a member of this year's wrestling team. Buddy Dey, Joe Amato, and Warren Nuessle were members of this year's W&L baseball team. Charlie McCormick and Scotty Russell were members of the golf team. In the past seven years, Phi Kap has not finished lower than third in Intramurals. In the last three years, Phi Kap has won the Championship twice.

Most students on the campus will remember the traditional Battle of the Bulge and the Fall and Christmas houseparties. Under the direction of our capable social chairman, Bob Boernstein, we had our annual Shipwreck Houseparty. Several houseparties were held at Goshen Pass, and Cave Mountain Lake in the Spring. Throughout the year, several "Birthday Parties" were held in honor of Brother Aiken.

We feel that much of what we achieved this year has been directly attributable to our House Mother, Mrs. John Cogbill, who has been untiring in her support and assistance.

The Chapter has proved to be an organization in which the individual can realize self-expression, and development of his personality. They have tried to maintain an air of congeniality among themselves and collectively, towards the entire campus, and in doing so they have developed a sense of unity and mutual respect which can be rivaled by none.

Founded in 1868 at the University of Virginia, Pi Kappa Alpha today looks back on a record of friendship and dignity, and forward to a confident future. In 112 Chapters throughout the nation, PiKA has produced and is producing outstanding and respected men. Pi Chapter of PiKA was founded here in 1892, and has grown and prospered both in numbers and spirit from that day on. During the twenties the Chapter became too large for its house on Jackson Avenue, and moved to its present location in Red Square. Pi's respected position on campus has been earned through the combined efforts and quality of the Chapter's members and loyal alumni. Two of the fraternity's alumni are on the Washington and Lee faculty: Dean Clayton E. Williams of the School of Law and Dr. Marshall Fishwick.

This year, as always, Pi can be justly proud of its members who continued its tradition of leadership in almost every field of campus endeavor: Barclay Smith was a starting forward on W&L's basketball team; John Arnold ran the very successful Charity Chest Drive which added to his already enviable record; former House President Phil Dowding was on the Law Review and a member of Sigma; Mark Davis served as a dormitory counselor—the list is long and the diversity great. The freshmen were particularly active in the publications field.

The Chapter as a whole continued its envied position as one of the leading fraternities on the campus: Sixth in scholarship . . . Intramural success . . . a strong and active pledge class. Socially, Pi's tradition of fine parties continued—the Pajama Party . . . the Christmas House Party . . . the dance weekends . . . the All-State PiKA Ball in Richmond . . . and many other get-togethers.

It would be hard to imagine being without our gracious House Mother, Mrs. Earl Foster. Since her entrance into the House she has added a new charm, and Pi is particularly indebted to her for being such a wizard with the finances. Pi Chapter looks forward to the coming year with its traditions of friendship, service, success, and prominence.

Rho Chapter of Pi Kappa Phi was established at Washington and Lee in February of 1920. During the past few years, the Chapter has performed many outstanding accomplishments. We have won the Scholarship Trophy twice in a single year, had the distinction of having the Head Dormitory Counselor and President of the Student Body a member of the Chapter, and also the editors of both the Ring-tum Phi and The Law Review.

The 1955-56 scholastic year has seen Rho Chapter continue its advance toward campus pre-eminence. The pledge class this year of fourteen members promises to promote this advance in the future, by producing campus leaders, both in activities and athletics. This year's Rho Chapter has two members on the Student Body Executive Committee: Bev Stephenson, representing the senior law class; and Bob Rappel, representing the sophomore academic class. Bill Fishback and Bob Stroud are Dormitory Counselors. This year Rho also has the president of the Concert Guild, Glenn Collins; the director of "Home Edition," Bill Fishback; the producer of "Kaleidescope," John Jennings; the president of the Friends of the Library, Bob Stroud; the president of the International Relations Club, Bill Fitzgerald; the vice-president of the Washington Literary Society, Glenn Collins; the vice-president of the International Relations Club, John Marsh; the managing editor of the Ring-tum Phi, Dick Anderson; the business manager of the Troubadours, Bob Stroud; the secretary of the Senior Class, Bill Fishback; and the Historian of the Junior Class, Ken Starling. In athletics, Rho has shown an active interest, having at present two monogram winners from track and cross-country, Bob Wood and Burke Armstrong. Scholastically, Rho began the year by ranking in third place among campus fraternities.

We owe a debt of deep gratitude to our House Mother, "Mrs. Mac," whose understanding and encouragement has helped us to reach those heights which we have now attained.

March, 1856 saw the birth of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the University of Alabama through the energies of Noble Leslie DeVotie and seven close companions. Some eleven years later in 1867 Virginia Sigma Chapter was established at W&L by Frank Bell Webb.

Always recognized and envied as one of the strongest national fraternities, Sigma Alpha Epsilon has extended that leadership on the W&L campus for many years. It is easy to see SAE's wide interests by its members' participation in many varied social, athletic, and extracurricular activities.

As President of Spring Dances, Rob Peeples heads one of the school's most popular dance sets. Merrill Plaisted contributed greatly to the success of the '56 CALYX by his position as CALYX Business Manager. Ed Givhan holds the presidency of the Graham Lee Society; Rob Peeples, the Cotillion Club; Charlie Dawson, Pi Alpha Nu; and Merrill Plaisted, the Mongolian Minks.

In sports, Burr Miller is on the soccer team, Gill Holland on the wrestling team, and Richard Raines on the swimming team. Don Farriss is a varsity golfer, with Greg McNeer, Bob Fleming, and Harry Heinetch playing football. The House claims excellent tennis players in Bill Chandler, Wally Witmer, Ed Woodson, Rob Peeples, and Bill Houston. Every member of the Chapter has some sport to which he devotes much spare time.

The past year saw such memorable events as the final payment and the burning of the house mortgage, a partial remodeling job through the efforts of Dr. Starling, and the completion of a large walled-in patio with furnishings.

SAE welcomed one of the strongest pledge classes on the campus and with them spent a happy and profitable year, including such long remembered events as the annual Pajama Game Party and the annual Christmas House Party.

The Fraternity thanks Mrs. Felde Wagner for her graciousness, kindness, and patience on the completion of her sixth year as our House Mother. Under the guidance of our advisors, Dr. Starling and Mr. Cook, SAE looks forward to another year of success and friendship.

Alpha Chapter of Sigma Chi was established on June 28, 1855, at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and the Fraternity has grown and multiplied until it now embraces 136 active chapters. Of these, Zeta is a very prominent constituent which appeared on the Washington and Lee Campus on December 10, 1866. Due to the character and spirit of its members Zeta has since played an active role in campus activities. Along with Beta Theta Pi and Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Chi forms the famed Miami Triad.

The Chapter illustrated its capabilities in initiating the new school year by pledging 24 fine freshmen during rush week. During the past year, the men of Sigma Chi have met with added success and good fortune. This can be attributed in part to a very popular and charming House Mother—our Mrs. G. C. Nielson, and to Dr. Kenneth P. Steves, Faculty Advisor and friend.

Today, as always, the Sigs have gained distinction in every phase of campus activities—athletics, social, scholarship and extra-curricular leadership. Representatives from our Chapter can be found in almost every varsity sport. Fall saw Jim Perryman, Marv Moreland, Pres Pate, Wat Watring, Clark Lea, and Paul Knox displaying their ability on the gridiron. In other varsity sports we had freshman Don Morine in soccer; Jerry Moyer in basketball; Tom Branch and Hank Smith in swimming; John Hollister, Butch House, and Mike Winston in wrestling; Dick Beldon and Bob Phelon in baseball; Pres Pate, Randy Creel and Bud Mower on track; Branch and Moyer on the links.

Freshmen participation in both intramurals and intercollegiate sports proved to be very encouraging. We rank at the top in intramurals, having won last year's over-all Athletic Championship Award.

Many Zeta Sigs have taken active part in the leadership phases of campus life. George Milligan, one of the outstanding students at W&L, was tapped ODK, elected President of the House, and has been listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." John Hollister, the Most Outstanding Freshman, was elected President of the Sophomore Class. Mike Garner was Secretary of the IFC, while Joe Chatman was Vice-President of both Openings and Fancy Dress.

The outstanding quality in which the Zeta Sigma Chi's pride themselves is the feeling of true brotherhood. Men of many different localities and aspirations find their common interest invested in the life and fraternal spirit of Sigma Chi. Young in her ambitions and steady in her actions, Sigma Chi will always be active on the W&L campus. It will long be remembered by its Sweethearts and members.

Sigma Nu was founded in 1869 at V.M.I. and has since grown to be one of the largest national fraternities in the United States. Lambda, one of the oldest active chapters of Sigma Nu, was founded at Washington and Lee in 1882.

Lambda members are fortunate to have Mrs. C. A. Spence as their House Mother. She has been with the Chapter for ten years and has been an integral part of all our activities during this time. Sigma Nu stands among the top fraternities at Washington and Lee in all phases of campus activity. The local chapter is above the all-men's average scholastically and stands high in varsity and intramural sports participation.

At the ODK tapping ceremony this year, Sigma Nu lead the campus with three initiates. They were: Trev Armbrister, chairman of SWMSFC, Editor of the Southern Collegian, Dean's List and Honor Roll; Buzz Hanson, President of the Publications Board, Business Manager of the Southern Collegian, Chairman of the Assimilation Committee, and listed in the 1955-56 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities;" Carl Swanson, Chairman of the Mock Convention, President of Pi Sigma Alpha, Assimilation Committee, and a member of Phi Delta Phi. Other campus leaders were Hugh Morrell, President of the W&L Glee Club; Bob Neunreiter, Art Editor of the Southern Collegian, and a member of the Varsity Wrestling team; Fred Magoline, Ring Chairman for SWMSFC; Mike Chaney, Junior Executive Committeeman, Dormitory Counselor, Freshman Camp Counselor, and a member of the Sazeracs.

In the field of sports Sigma Nu provided many men for varsity teams. In football, Rufe Safford, John Grabeau, and Dan Giger were starred. Len Hough and Charlie MacIntosh were members of the soccer team. Ben Noel and Bob Neunreiter are on this year's Varsity wrestling squad. John Gibbs is on the swimming team.

This year the White Rose Formal, one of the campus's top social events, was held at the Mayflower Hotel. Music was provided by the VMI Commanders. The fall costume party was a great success with its theme of "Communism." The Spring House Party took place at Cave Mountain Lake.

But of primary importance at Sigma Nu is the feeling of fellowship and unity.

Zeta Beta Tau had its beginnings on the Washington and Lee campus in 1920 as an outgrowth of the Gamma Gamma Club which was formed in 1919 by six students. Granted a charter by the National Fraternity, it became the Alpha Epsilon Chapter. From this humble beginning the Chapter has expanded notably in size and prestige.

Sixteen freshmen were pledged this year, and the total membership is fifty-three. The Chapter's membership has increased steadily for the past few years, and at the present it is stronger than it has ever been. The physical plant was enlarged and improved to handle this record membership. The dining room was doubled in size; the basement was retiled, and the entire house was painted.

The Zebes are very active participants in the activities on the Washington and Lee campus. Prominent members are Henry Heymann, President of Fancy Dress; Sandy Maslansky, Executive Committeeman; and Sid Kaplan, President of the Interfraternity Council. Other active members are Larry Atler, Business Manager of the Ring-tum Phi; Curley Greenbaum, Vice-President of Openings Dances, and Bill Abeloff, Assistant Editor of the CALYX.

Alpha Epsilon is well represented in the athletic circles too. Ira Samelson, Dick Brickman, and Ed Sapinsley were members of the football team. The swimming team had a strong representation, with John Gold, Stan Erdreich, and Alan Osher participating. The lone addition to the golf team was Don Rosenfeld. During the past year, the Chapter ranked second both semesters scholastically.

Many thanks are owed our new House Mother, Mrs. Lenoy Marsh. She has done much to make the year a successful one. Thanks to her cooperation and the excellent job done by the officers, the Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Zeta Beta Tau has had another successful year on the Washington and Lee campus.

The 1956 Football Squad

Once again, the sounds of clattering cleats and thumpings from the tackling dummies were echoed across the campus, but the year's Blue and White gridders ushered in a new era of football at Washington and Lee. Two years ago, the University abandoned their former program and adopted a new policy of denying direct athletic scholarships. As a result, a young and inexperienced eleven, made up of boys playing merely for self-gratification, faced a schedule composed of small colleges supposedly "in our own league."

The publicized debut of the Generals was spoiled by potent Centre College, 24-7. The disappointing encounter was highlighted only by a 64-yard touchdown scamper by Alex Platt.

Capitalizing on W. and L.'s opening game jitters, the Colonels came from behind, aided by a half dozen fumbles and pass interceptions, to register their third straight victory. Centre College was rated one of the strongest "small schools" in the nation and boasted an offensive average of 400 yards per game. Unmindful of this impressive reputation, the Blue and White, after an exchange of downs, took advantage of the opponents poor punt. On the first play Roger Doyle sent fullback Alex Platt through the center of the line for a 64-yard paydirt sprint; Pres Pate converted. On the returning kickoff, however, Centre culminated their sustained march by knotting the score. Colonel tallies at the end of the half, on an interception in the third quarter, and on a field goal in the waning moments of the game left partisan rooters little to yell or hope for.

The Generals, facing the last remnant of their old subsidized schedule, were trounced by hopped-up Davidson, 54-0. Playing before their Homecoming crowd, the greatly improved wildcats, offensive leaders of the Southern Conference, took sweet revenge for the prior merciless beatings handed them by W. and L. A touchdown pass in the final seconds of the half, giving Davidson a 14-0 lead, broke the backs of our surprising defense and turned a tight struggle into a belated rout. The Wildcats proceeded to pour their clicking pass attack and hard rushing offense over the weary Blue and White, scoring three times in each of the last two quarters. Pres Pate's 43-yard punt return in the first half nearly set up a tally, but a long penalty on the next play nullified any chances of scoring.

A hopeful Homecoming aggregation was disappointed by Southwestern's 33-12 drubbing of the Generals. An early drive culminated in Al Gitter's touchdown toss to Jim Perryman, but this quick lead was shortlived.

Briscoe checks Centre ball carrier

Led by Little All-American Jim Higgason, who scored at the very end of the first half and on a 70-yard second half pass interception, the Lynx eleven rolled over the demoralized Blue for three more markers on long sustained drives. Roger Doyle's fourth quarter toss to Pres Pate ended the afternoon's scoring. W. and L. had recovered the ball on downs deep in Southwestern's territory and had reached pay dirt two plays later.

The Generals fought their hardest game of the season but succumbed 27-0 to heavily favored Washington University of St. Louis. Although the Bears were outplayed half of the game, a combination of key injuries and lack of depth on the part of W. and L. enabled their adversary to register three touchdowns in the third quarter. Statistically both teams were even, but the roof caved in on the Blue when a Washington back returned the second half kick-off 85 yards. The Bears capitalized on five fumbles and a strategic interception to thwart the General offense.

Jumping from the frying pan into the fire, the hapless W. and L. eleven were rocked by Hampden-Sydney, 35-7, who were performing before a delighted Homecoming crowd. The Wildcats, nailing down the Mason-Dixon lead, surged to their twelfth consecutive triumph by turning a pair of fumbles and an interception into three of their five touchdowns. Pouncing on a fumble near the end of the game, the Generals fought their way to the end zone, with Corky Briscoe, a greatly improved freshman, carrying for the score. Hampden-Sydney took advantage of our weak first half offensive and defensive efforts, in registering their first victory ever captured from the Blue.

Stine sweeps around the outside

The University of the South celebrated their Homecoming festivities by upsetting the winless Generals, 12-0, for their first victory in two years. Coaches Chipley and Williams' frantic efforts to juggle the line-up in hopes of a winning combination were to no avail, as Sewanee took advantage of a short kick and a costly fumble to break open the defense. Of the four away games scheduled by W. and L. this was the third that had to be played before their opponents' spirited Homecoming fans.

The Generals completed the dismal campaign by taking it on the chin from West Virginia Tech, 13-0. Tackle Ike Smith clobbered the Bears' quarterback and recovered the subsequent fumble on the 5-yard line, but the Blue failed to capitalize on their only scoring opportunity. Another fumble and a long touchdown run by Tech shattered W. and L.'s otherwise potent defensive efforts.

A world of anxiety, confusion, and caustic comment erupted from this ticklish experiment. Because of the pitiful spirit displayed by students, many felt they would rather lose to Maryland and Tennessee by the same ridiculous margins that were piled up these "unknown" colleges. Others believed that a partial de-emphasis program, with only a few athletic scholarships given, would solve the problem. Still more wanted to lower football and raise another sport, like basketball, which would require less funds, into the "big time." It must be remembered that the boys comprising this year's team were under no financial obligation but under terrific pressure from the student body as the season progressed; significant results should not have been expected in the initial year under these new circumstances. Other changes have to be considered. The turnout for other sports improved immensely and the situation regarding athletic equipment and facilities was remedied to a great extent. Whatever policy is formulated in the future, we must give our whole-hearted support to the University.

Washington and Lee's soccer team, coached by Gene Corrigan, and strengthened by 13 returning lettermen, met Lynchburg College in the season opener on October 3rd in Lynchburg. The game was close all the way with the favored Generals finally succumbing to their opponents by a count of 2 to 1. Beldon Butterfield made the lone Blue and White goal on a penalty kick in the fourth period.

On Wednesday, October 12th, the W. and L. booters travelled to Salem to meet a strong Roanoke team. The Generals controlled the ball most of the game, but Roanoke was quick to take advantage of every scoring opportunity, as they defeated the visitors 3 to 1. Butterfield accounted for the Blue and White marker on a pass from Keith Belch with a minute gone in the fourth quarter.

On the following Wednesday the Generals played their first home game against highly-touted Duke. The game was marked by exciting play throughout, with the first half ending scoreless. Midway through the third period Gardner White accounted for a goal, putting W. and L. ahead. However, in the last period Duke scored two quick goals which gave them the final advantage, 2-1.

Tuesday, October 25th, found the Generals journeying to Charlottesville, to meet the University of Virginia in a game which produced many thrills. The Blue and White enjoyed a two goal lead up until the third period, when the Cavaliers evened the score. Two overtime periods found the game ending in a 3 to 3 tie, as the result of Bob Lathrop's last minute goal. Captain Jim Lewis was outstanding for the Generals on defense.

Washington and Lee's improving soccermen played host to Roanoke College on Thursday, November 3rd. Looking for their first win of the season and hoping to avenge an earlier season defeat at the hands of their opponents, the Blue and White played determined ball throughout the entire contest. The result was a victory for the home team by a score of 3-0. Butterfield, Frank Dillingham, and Lathrop accounted for the three goals, while fullback Moose Schafer blocked enemy kicks on numerous occasions to keep his teammates ahead.

On Monday, November 7th, the Generals went to Raleigh to meet North Carolina State's soccer team. W. and L. had a bad afternoon, for they could not keep pace wtih their strong opponents who came out on the long end of a 4 to 1 score. To make the trip to our neighboring state totally unsuccessful, the Blue and White booters travelled over to Chapel Hill the next day and lost a 3-0 decision to the University of North Carolina. The Generals had difficulty in controlling the ball and lacked the adequate defense to stop the Tar Heels.

November 11th found the Generals bound for Georgetown University in Washington. Sophomore White paced the visitors to a 6 to 3 win, scoring three goals. The game was easily taken as the Blue and White dominated the play throughout most of the contest.

The University of Maryland, hoping to avenge their record spoiling tie of the year before, journeyed to Lexington on November 15th. The game, a close, low-scoring contest, was hard fought on both sides. The Generals failed to equal or better their feat of the previous season and lost 2-1.

November 22 saw W. and L. play host to the University of Virginia soccer team, in what was to be the final contest for both teams. A penalty kick by Lewis and a goal by Lathrop enabled the Generals to finish their season with a 2 to 1 victory.

Cross Country

Coach Miller instructs Duffy

The Washington and Lee Cross Country team, captained by Charlie Duffy and coached by Dick Miller, had a turnout for their 1955 season of seven lettermen and seventeen freshmen. On October 3rd, the harriers travelled to Lynchburg to meet VPI and Lynchburg in a triangular meet. Getting off to a slow start for the season, the General's Duffy placed fourth in the run, while Mike Barry finished eighth. The final results gave W. and L. a tie for second, as VPI won.

On October 8th, at Wilson Field, between the halves of the Centre College football game, the Blue and White harriers ran against Richmond and Bridgewater College in a triangular meet, which saw the Generals take second place. The harriers met Roanoke College at Salem, on October 14th. The best W. and L. could do was a fifth place, which Duffy gained, edging out teammate Burke Armstrong.

The Cross Country team on October 20th met the University of Virginia in a very close home meet. However, the Generals, led by Captain Duffy, placed second, fourth, and fifth, to gain a 26 to 29 victory over their bitter rivals from Charlottesville. On October 27th, the General played host to VMI and Davidson in a triangular meet. Washington and Lee's Burke Armstrong placed second, but it wasn't enough, as W. and L. placed third, and VMI won. William and Mary travelled to Lexington on November 5th, and won a close meet, with the Generals losing 33 to 22.

On November 7th, the Annual Big Six Tournament was held in Lexington. Burke Armstrong placed fifth, as VMI was again victorious. On November 21st, the Southern Conference Meet was held at Davidson, N.C. William and Mary was first, as Washington and Lee placed fifth, to climax a reasonably successful season.

Swimming

Supported by a host of underclassmen, the Blue and White swimmers chalked up a comparatively successful season by capturing six of their nine dual meets. Coach Cy Twombly's mermen dove off to a blazing start, but were caught midway in the campaign by a string of tougher competitors. In the opening encounter, the Generals outclassed Catholic University, 53-31, at Doremus Gymnasium; Lou Aliotti grabbed a pair of freestyle victories, to lead the scorers. A narrow triumph over Virginia and the massacre of Lynchburg College kept the undefeated record intact. The Blue reached their summit by gaining a spirited victory over Davidson, 46-38. Jay Fox broke the Lexington pool record in the 220-yard breaststroke for the second time, by finishing in two and one-half minutes flat. East Carolina Teachers College upset the tables by sinking the Generals, 46-38, and before the tankers could come up for air, they found themselves in the wake of Duke and VPI; only a solid win over William and Mary kept the southern tour from being a complete washout. The powerful Blue Devils were given a good run for their money, but VPI used their depth to a greater advantage in keeping W. and L. submerged. The annihilation of Randolph-Macon culminated the season's individual matches, however Charlie Richardson's diving led the Blue to fourth place in both the Big Six and the Southern Conference Championships. The youthful squad, losing only captain Frank Guenther next year, hopes to paint their potent nucleus with a coat of experience and depth in order to develop into a strong Southern Conference contender.

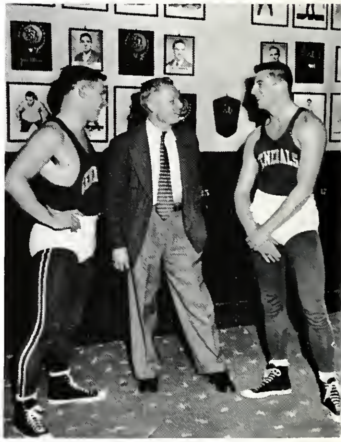
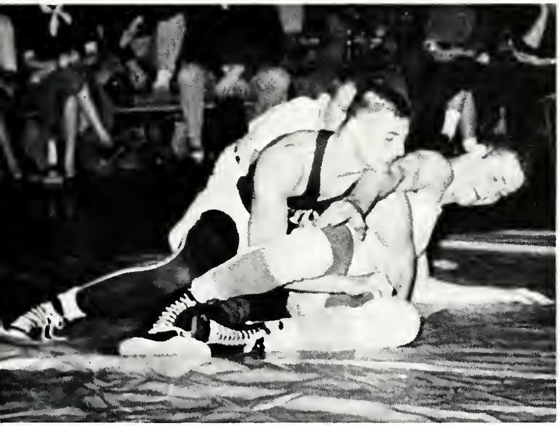
Washington and Lee's grapplers culminated their season with but a mediocre record, however highlights were not unseen. The Generals were not feared by their adversaries as potential conference champs, for Coach Miller had the perennial problem of lack of experience among the underclassmen who the team relied upon for support. In addition, the schedule didn't facilitate matters, for such classy squads as VPI and Franklin and Mashall sent the Blue reeling backwards before they could catch their breath. Virginia Polytechnic, defending Southern Conference Champions, put a damper on any W. and L. hopes for a successful initial effort by rolling up a 26-6 lopsided victory. Gibby McSpadden and John Hollister were the only winning matmen, as the wrestling-minded Gobblers pinned in four of their six matches. Keeping the competition on an even keel, the Generals were handed their second straight swamping by nationally ranked Franklin and Marshall, 26-5. McSpadden's easy decision and John Ellis's draw was all the Blue could do to avert a shutout.

Coach Miller and Co-Captains Northrop and McSpadden.



After their third loss to Duke University during the annual southern trip, the Generals scratched the win column by dumping North Carolina, 26-10. The Tarheels could salvage only two matches, while four of the rebels were pinned by the recovering Blue and White matmen. West Virginia's potent wrestlers rallied at the end of the meet to avert being upset by Washington and Lee, and were glad to settle with a 14-14 tie. The Generals built up a 14-8 lead with only two weights remaining, but Hollister's 4-3 disputed loss and Holland's decision at the hands of an opponent who was forty pounds his senior enabled the Mountaineers to deadlock the meet.

Appalachian State Teachers' surprisingly strong grapplers snubbed the game Generals by handing them their fourth loss, 25-13. The campaign's major upset occurred that night, as McSpadden was pinned in a hotly protested match; Dick Whiteford, John Ellis, and Bob Miller were the only Minks who grabbed victories for the outpointed Blue. Davidson College fell before the victory hungry Blue, 19-10, as the latter salted away their second triumph. Unloosening a rare potent showing, the matmen secured every match but two, while drawing once. Citadel's freshman dominated squad offered little opposition to the Generals, in succumbing 19-8. Again the victors lost only a pair of matches and drew once. Powerful Virginia kept the Blue from a .500 season by racking up a 24-6 advantage. Only victories by Ellis and McSpadden kept the meet from being a washout.



McSpadden prepares to pin

Hollister in action

The Southern Conference Championships, held in Doremus Gymnasium, provided the host Generals with equally stiff competition. Although the wrestlers took third, behind VPI and VMI, they placed four grapplers in the finals, McSpadden being the only champion. Bob Neunreiter, John Ellis, for the second straight year, and Bob Miller grabbed second places in the 123, 137, and 167 pound classes respectively. Gibby McSpadden's 177 pound triumph gave him his third straight Conference Championship. Two years ago, by taking the 167 pound title, Gibby was voted the Tournament's Most Outstanding Wrestler; last year he successfully defended his 167 pound crown. McSpadden's record of forty match victories against only three losses, including two undefeated seasons, proves him to be one of the most outstanding athletes W. and L. has produced in the last few years. Although the squad loses McSpadden and John Ellis, whose record of thirty-two wins as opposed to only eight losses can't be underrtaed, a potent nucleus of returning freshmen and sophomores should be the center around which a stronger and more rounded team can be developed.

Marshall with his hook shot

Washington and Lee's Five Star Generals, strengthened by the return of 10 lettermen, captained by Barry Storick, and coached by Billy McCann, opened their 1955-56 season by traveling to Staunton, where they met Bridgewater College on December 1st. The first half proved to be hard going for the Generals as they were constantly threatened by their opponents. However, in the second half Dom Flora led a winning surge which found the Blue and White gaining a rather lopsided 103-67 decision. Flora, a sophomore guard, was high man with 30 points, while center Lee Marshall collected 25 for the evening.

On Tuesday, December 6th, the Five Star Generals played host to Richmond at Doremus Gymnasium. This game proved to be one of the season's closest for the underdog Blue and White who in spite of the odds were able to stay ahead of their opponents until the final gun sounded. Flora with 27 points and Marshall with 18 led their team to a surprising 78 to 76 victory over the Spiders.

With two victories under their belts, the W. and L. Five went on the road to Fayetteville where they met West Virginia, led by the famous "Hot Rod" Hundley. The Generals led by four points at the half but were unable to hold on to the advantage, and they were beaten by a 80-71 score. Flora took the scoring honors for the night with 32 as against 27 for Hundley. On the following night the team travelled over to Huntington to meet Marshall College. The trip to West Virginia proved totally unsuccessful, as the Generals trailed their opponents 115-83 at the game's end. Flora led both teams in scoring with 34 points.

Tuesday, December 13th, found the Blue and White playing host to Morehead State at the V.M.I. Fieldhouse. The contest proved to be close all the way and an overtime period was required to decide the victory. The home team was unable to pull through in the clutch, losing 92-87. Next on the card was a contest with the highly touted George Washington five in Washington. Joe Holup and company were too much for the visitors, as the home team triumphed a 86-70 victory. The Generals were led by Flora and Storick who collected 22 and 15 points respectively.

During the Christmas Holidays the W. and L. five travelled to Dayton, Ohio, to meet Dayton University on December 28. The Generals had difficulty in posing anything of a threat to the second ranked team in the nation. In spite of Marshall's 19 point effort, the visitors fell 86-54. On the next day they went to Owensboro, Kentucky, where they participated in the All-American City Tournament. The Five Star Generals drew the College of Pacific in the first round and squeezed by them by a 65-64 count. In the next round the Blue and White met Kentucky Wesleyan. Again they were successful as they defeated their opponents by an 88-78 score. In the third round the Generals met their match, as Evansville, with five of their players hitting in the double figures, won by a score of 86-69.

January 3rd found the team starting off the new year by journeying to Morgantown to play West Virginia for a second time. Again the Mountaineers proved to be too powerful, for the Blue and White lost by a 98-84 score. The travelling Generals went to Williamsburg to meet William and Mary on January 7th. The visitors were unable to hold on to their first half lead of one point as they eventually suffered a 79-70 setback. Marshall was high man for the night as he collected 28 points.

On January 10th the W. and L. five decided that it was time to win a game and proceeded to trounce Roanoke College 103-79 at Doremus Gymnasium. Flora, Storick and Marshall were top scorers for the evening with 26, 23, and 20 points respectively. The Generals played host to Davidson on the following Saturday at the V.M.I. Fieldhouse. Unable to hold their halftime lead, the home team lacked the spark which they had shown in previous games and fell down to their opponents by a 71-65 score. Next the Blue and White encountered their bitter rivals, the Wahoos whom they met on January 16th. The contest was a close one all the way and of course was marked by high-spirited play. Having fallen back at the half, the Generals wound up on the short end of a 73-71 decision. Flora led all scorers with a 34 point effort, while his rival for state scoring honors, McCarty, collected 24 points.

On January 19th V.P.I. travelled to Lexington to meet the Generals in what proved to be hardly a contest. The home team playing their worst game of the season could garner no more than 49 points as V.P.I. collected 60 to gain an easy victory. Highly rated Villanova came to Lexington the following Saturday and had little trouble in holding the home team as they won by a score of 82-66. Marshall led all scorers with 24 points for the night.

On February 7th, the Five Star Generals played host to Johns Hopkins of Baltimore. It was a relatively easy task for the home team to keep the lead and they won the breather by a score of 86-62. Marshall and Flora led the scoring with 24 and 23 points respectively. February 10th found the team travelling to North Carolina to meet Davidson College for the second time. The visitors avenged their earlier defeat by scoring an 85-75 triumph. Five Generals hit double figures in the contest as Marshall led the way with 21 points. The next day the team moved to South Carolina where they met the Citadel. The visitors fell one point short of the century mark in defeating their contestants, who collected only 67 points.

The Generals travelled to Blacksburg on February 14 to play V.P.I. again. Unable to avenge their earlier defeat the Blue and White fell short by a 68-64 count. Frank Hoss, sophomore forward, was high for the visitors with 18 points.

On the following Thursday the Blue and White were visited by the Cavaliers of U. Va. who went to the V.M.I. Fieldhouse confident of another victory. The game was close throughout, but the home team managed to hold the lead most of the time. Hoss' rebounding on defense proved to be the deciding factor in the contest, for Marshall and Winawer were both injured in the early moments of the game. W. and L. came through, as the final buzzer found them out in front of the Wahoos 79-71. Flora and Hoss were high scorers for the team as they scored 24 and 19 points respectively. Celebration over the victory was spoiled by the news that Marshall would be unable to play for the remainder of the season.

February 18th found the Generals playing host to William and Mary at Doremus Gymnasium. Flora in scoring 37 points for the night led his team to a 70-57 win over the Indians. Monday the 20th was the Blue and White's final home game which they finished in the proper manner by scoring a relatively easy 91-54 victory over the Citadel. This assured them of a berth in the coming Southern Conference Tournament. Flora and Hoss led all scorers with 24 and 20 points respectively.

On the 22nd the Generals travelled to Richmond where they met Richmond University for the second time. Seeking victory with a vengeance, the home team won 88-70. The scoring was well distributed, for on the two teams eight players hit double figures. On the following Saturday the team went all the way to Ohio only to be defeated by the highly rated University of Cincinnati five. The score of this contest, which finished out the regular season, was 87-57.

Thursday, March 1st, saw the Blue and White going to Richmond where they were to meet top-seeded George Washington University in the first round of the Southern Conference Tournament. W. and L.'s Five Star Generals, playing without the services of center Lee Marshall, battled hard all the way to score a stunning upset victory over the highly favored Colonials. Sophomore guard Dom Flora, who played a spectacular game while collecting 28 points, was aided by Frank Hoss and Barclay Smith, who scored 10 points apiece. Guard Bob McHenry also played a remarkable game. The following day the Generals played Richmond and were defeated 65-56. This game terminated a reasonably successful season for the W. and L. basketball team. Every member of the squad is due a great deal of credit for the outstanding job which they have done as a team.

During Spring vacation the Lacrosse Team set up quarters at Mt. Washington Field in Baltimore, where Coach Charlie Herbert, with the help of trainer "Deb" Davis, was making the final preparations for the season opener with Loyola College. Finally on Saturday, April 2nd, the stickmen met a fighting Greyhound team which came from behind repeatedly to keep on even terms with the Generals. The game ended in a 12-12 tie, after two overtime periods failed to give either team the final advantage. High scorers for the game were Dick O'Connell and freshmen Henry LeBrun, both of whom had three apiece. Two freshmen, Bill Caspari and Dave Nichols, had two goals each, while Captain Duckey Drake and defense-man Stumpy Johnson had one.

On the following Saturday, April 9th, W. and L. played host to the Baltimore University Lacrosse Team. The game was marked by high-spirited play on both sides, and toward the closing moments tempers flared to the point where a free-for-all developed with both benches rushing onto the field of battle. The melee was promptly brought to an end by referees, trainers, and coaches. It was anyone's victory throughout the contest. However, a tally in the last minutes of the game by Dick Gwathmey gave the Generals the final advantage, 5-4. The Blue and White defense did an outstanding job, which proved to be the essential difference between the two teams.

W. and L. suffered its first loss of the season when the mighty Terrapins from Maryland came to Wilson Field on April 16th. Charlie Wicker, Dick Corrigan, Jim Keating scored three goals apiece for the victors. The Generals were on the short end of a 15-2 decision. Tom Martin scored for the home team in the first period but not until after the Terps had collected four; Rodey Davies accounted for the other W. and L. score in the second half. The team was unable to get started that afternoon. The more experienced and stronger reserve strength of Maryland was too much for the Blue and White, who it turned out had met the undefeated National Champions.

A week later on Saturday, April 23rd, the W. and L. lacrosse team engaged the Maryland Lacrosse Club, a group largely made up of former college stars. The Generals rebounded from their loss the previous Saturday by winning 13-10. Attackman Nichols was high man for the day, collecting a phenomenal five goals. Captain Drake was second in scoring honors with three; while on the defense, goalie Jim Lewis turned back 18 shots.

Thursday, April 28th, found the Blue and White stickmen travelling to Chapel Hill to meet the University of North Carolina Lacrosse Team. The Generals had a relatively easy time of it as the inexperienced Tar Heels failed to hold back W. and L.'s scoring surges. O'Connell was high man for the day as he fired in five goals in the 13-4 victory. The game proved to be valuable experience for the team since substitutes played most of the game. North Carolina never posed a threat as the Generals controlled the ball most of the contest.

With three victories tucked neatly under their belts the Lacrosse Team journeyed to Durham the next day to play Duke University. Remembering the 13-3 defeat at the hands of the Blue Devils the year before, the team sought victory with vengeance. Trailing 2-1 at the end of the initial period, the visitors caught fire in the next, collecting five goals. From that time on W. and L. controlled the game, being quick to recover most of the ground balls. Duke could not come back after the fatal second period, and the Generals enjoyed a 10-4 victory. O'Connell and Nichols, the one-two punch of the attack, shared the scoring glories wtih three apiece for the afternoon, while Lewis performed well in the nets.

LACROSSE (Continued)

On May 4th, the Generals made their way to Chestertown, Maryland, to meet Washington College in a contest which proved a treat for the spectators, for the game was well played by both teams. Trailing 3-0 at the end of the initial period the Blue and White fought back to gain the final advantage, 9-8. Nichols had three goals for the afternoon, while O'Connell scored two, one of them being the game's deciding tally in the last two minutes of play.

Saturday, May 7th, found the W. and L. team travelling to Charlottesville to play the Wahoos in the final game of the season for both universities. The Generals had difficulty in getting started and were behind 6-2 at the end of the first half. In the fourth period the visitors caught fire scoring seven goals; however, it was not quite enough, as U. Va. won by the close margin of 12-11. Individual honors went to O'Connell who had an outstanding total of six goals for the day. This game climaxed a winning season for the Blue and White who finished the campaign with a 5-2-1 record.

Loose ball and a mad scramble

Rifle Team

The Washington and Lee Rifle Team concluded its first varsity season, by participating in the Southern Conference Tournament held at the Citadel. With nine Southern Conference teams entered, the W. and L. team fared very well, as they finished in fifth position. The four teams finishing in front of the W. and L. riflemen were VPI, VMI, The Citadel, and George Washington, in that order. George Washington managed to edge out Washington and Lee for fourth place, by the narrow margin of eleven points.

Even though the Rifle Team's first varsity season was a losing one, it was highly pleasing to all connected with it. The Rifle Team participated in sixteen matches this year, managing to win only six of them. However the two coaches, Sgts. Gurganus and Jones, as well as the Captain, Jim Marvin, are not disappointed by the results. They expressed the opinion that this showing was very satisfactory for a first year team. The outlook for next year's team is very good, in view of the returning personnel and the ever-increasing interest.

Due to the transportation costs, the Rifle Team is unable to fire all their matches shoulder to shoulder. The majority of the matches were postal matches, where each team fires, and then sends their score to the other team. The team was able to fire seven shoulder to shoulder matches, with two of them being triangular matches. Thus Washington and Lee's Varsity Rifle Team completed their first season of competition, and even though it was a relatively unsuccessful one, it holds great promise for the future.

Any hopes by the 1955 Generals for a prosperous season went sour as the Blue and White nine crawled through a disastrous schedule in the face of stiff competition. Only four of their twenty-one contests scratched the win column, and most of these victories were upsets. Following the characteristics of most of the Washington and Lee squads this year, the baseball team was comparatively young, receiving support predominately from freshmen and sophomores. Lack of experience was once again one of the major faults attributed to the Generals' record, but failure to hit in the clutches and to bunch their safeties were more direct discrepancies. The pitching, as a whole, was mercuric, but low run games and outstanding relief performances were not uncommon.

Returning from a rocky spring vacation tour, on which one out of seven contests was salvaged, the Blue and White met Trinity College in the home opener. Despite a masterful four-hitter by Joe Knakal, the Generals were shut out for the second and last time this season. The following day, Colgate University spotted the squad four runs in the initial inning and rallied to a stubborn victory.

The diamondmen snapped a ten-game losing streak by upsetting heavily favored Richmond. A second inning home run was the only threat to Joe Knakal, as the sophomore hurler allowed a mere three hits. Dom Flora smacked in a pair of runs while errors accounted for the other two.

The campaign was highlighted by a second upset, this being at the expense of potent Maryland. The eleven inning battle featured some choice relief pitching and heads-up base running. When starter Joe Amato tired in the eighth, reliefer Al Gitter came in with the bases loaded, but after allowing one run to cross, silenced the Terps for the duration of the contest. In the final frame, Fred Benham walked, stole second, advanced on a wild pitch, and scored on a sacrifice fly.

The Generals' final victory was another surprising effort against Richmond. Although Knakal was credited with the win, he gave way to Dick Skolnik in the fifth. The latter reliefer wild-pitched in a score but gave up only one hit in three innings. The squad finally hit in the clutch, as Cal Couch and Dom Flora drove in a pair of runs apiece.

Though the results of the 1955 schedule wasn't satisfying, Coach Billy McCann's nine proved they had the ability and potential. The transformation of this young squad into a smooth working unit can be accomplished only through development and experience.

Climaxing a most bizarre season, the Blue and White golfers highlighted the Spring campaign by capturing the Southern Conference Championship, their first title in thirty-four years. The top four man total was sparked by Ted Kerr's two under par 138, which gave him the deserved individual crown. Don and Buck Chapoton, and Don Rosenfeld compiled the rest of the Generals' team, which finished two strokes ahead of the runner-up.

Counting on sophomore talent, which composed an undefeated freshmen team the previous year, Coach Cy Twombly's linksmen dropped each of their dual matches, mainly due to inexperience. The initial 6 to 3 setback by Colgate exemplified each of these losses, for the result was not decided until two extra hole matches fell to the opponents. With the exception of an 8 to 1 trouncing by undefeated Georgetown, every dual meet was closely fought, and a victory could have gone to either squad. Brighter prospects are forecast in the future, when these young golfers form a potent nucleus for the Defending Conference Champs. However, it must be said that the 1955 version of Captain Fred Bear, Ted Kerr, Don and Buck Chapoton, Ellis Drew, Don Rosenfeld, and Don Rosenfeld, and Don Farriss performed admirably.

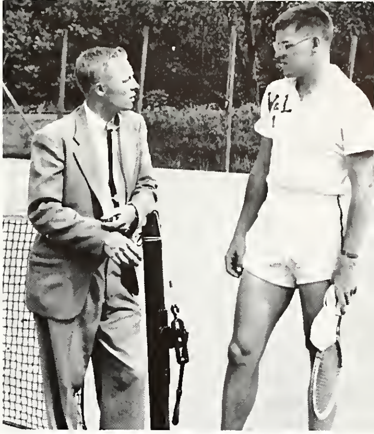
Tennis



Coach Miller advises Captain McCain

Washington and Lee's Tennis Team, ably coached by Dick Miller and captained by Art McCain, opened its season on April 8th in Hot Springs, Virginia, when it met Colgate University. The more experienced Colgate netters, for whom this was the fifth match, won the day, soundly trouncing the Generals, 8-1. McCain and Dick Butrick teamed together in the doubles to gain W. and L.'s only victory.

On April 13th Detroit's Wayne University arrived in Lexington for a tense see-saw contest in which the Blue and White was finally turned back, 5-4. Kim Wood, Lee Waltz, and Butrick in the singles and McCain and Butrick in the doubles were victorious. April 16th found the W. and L. netmen playing host to Davidson. The visitors, boasting the strongest team in the Conference, had comparatively little trouble in gaining a 9-0 victory over the winless Generals.

Finally on April 18th in a closely matched home contest against Virginia Tech, the Blue and White broke into the winning column as they found themselves on the long end of a 5-4 decision. Pat Patterson, Wood, and Butrick, and the teams of Peale-Wood and McCain-Butrick contributed to W and L.'s first victory. In Washington on the next day the netters made it two in a row with a 5-4 win over George Washington. Moving over to Georgetown on the following afternoon, another close match saw the Generals fall before the home team by a 5-4 count.

One of the most successful days of the season was April 28th as the Blue and White scored straight set victories in all except one match, to soundly defeat Hampden-Sydney, 9-0. A complete turnabout of score came on May 3rd as the W. and L. netmen were trounced by the nation's second ranked team, Rollins. In the last two matches on May 9th and 12th, the Generals bounced right back to defeat both V.P.I. and Hampden-Sydney by identical 9-0 scores, to finish with an overall 5-5 record for the season.

Track

Due to the return of only six lettermen and the inexperience of a freshman and sophomore dominated squad, the Blue and White thinclads fared unsuccessfully against Southern Conference competition, managing to salvage only one victory in eight dual meets. As in all activities, certain individuals stood out, but it was the lack of depth, especially in the longer dashes and distance runs, that enabled the opposition to walk off with victories. The cindermen were led by Captain Harry Kennedy, the top point getter, and rated most valuable, who stood out in the hurdles, Al Platt, who tossed the weights, Frank Hoss and Roy Simpkins in the field events, Paul Ironsides with the short dashes, and John Arnold in the mile. Randy Creel and Gene Keith were voted most improved in the field and running events respectively.

With the exception of the initial trouncing at the hands of powerful V.P.I., the Generals' gained momentum, but dropped a pair of hard fought meets to Lynchburg and Hampden-Sydney, before they shellacked Bridgewater, for their only triumph. The remaining schedule left much to be desired, however, as a consistent lack of depth and the failure on the part of the squad to reinforce the few men who turned in winning performances, spelled the difference between the wide scores. Again the hopeful cry is, "Look to the future," where the younger talent is expected to provide the necessary shot in the arm.

Cheerleaders

Washington and Lee's Cheerleaders, led by Ted Kerr, were reorganized and revitalized this year. In the past few years, the Cheerleaders participation in, and leadership of, the school's sports program has declined steadily. However this year, with the larger membership, and the greater interest among the members, the Cheerleaders were able to take a greater part in this program. Kerr, who is in his third year with the Cheerleaders, deserves much of the credit for this increased activity.

Intramurals

Jim Marvin, Senior Manager, and Coach Corrigan survey the situation

The University Intramural Athletic Program at Washington and Lee is now classified as one of the most active of such programs in the nation with respect to both student participation and the extent of the program itself. The trend of increasing student patricipation in the program during the past years has continued. It is estimated that this year 78% of the student body entered at least one event sponsored by the Intramural Department. This can be attributed to the fact that it is student sponsored and promoted under the leadership of Jim Marvin; Jim is the Senior Manager of the intramural Board which is made up of the Fraternity Athletic Directors, the Law School and the N.F.U. representatives. They act as liaison men between the Board and their respective groups on the campus. The Board is responsible for the officials and publicity for the events which make for a smooth functioning organization. Acting as faculty advisor for the Board is Gene Corrigan of the Athletic Department.

The purpose of the Intramural Program is multifold since it fulfills the need of an athletic and recreational program for the students of the social fraternities, the non-fraternity group, the Law School, as well as the members of the faculty. It is also a basic facet for the development of fraternity spirit.

The swimming meet went off with a flying start

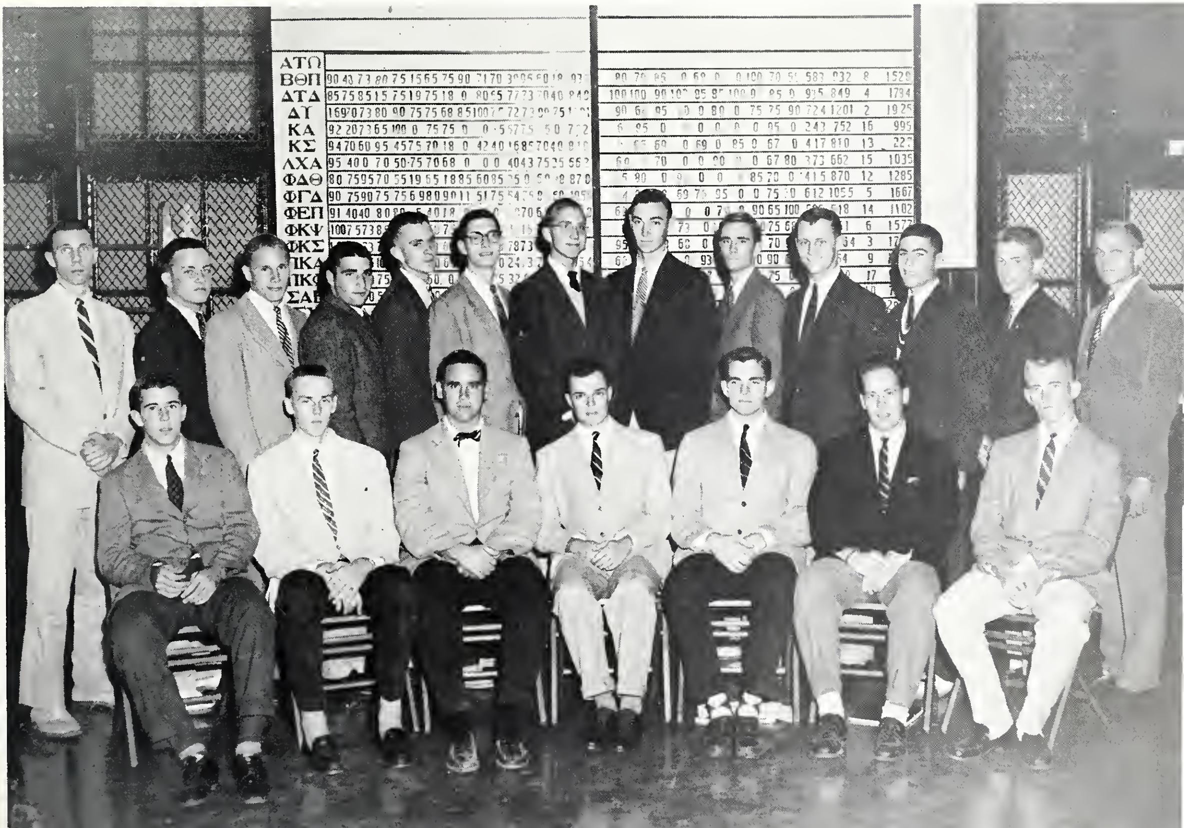
The program consists of twelve sports which are played in their respective seasons, the Sports Carnival which specializes in individual events of different types, and the Turkey Trot which is held in the fall. The Turkey Trot is a cross country meet in which the freshmen from the fraternities compete for a Thanksgiving turkey. Beyond these the department also sponsors the Corn Bowl football game, the proceeds of which go to the Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund and the Sigma Delta Psi tests.

Final standing is determined by a point system and trophies awarded to those houses which capture first place in the various sports as well as the house which shows the most participation in the various varsity sports.

The Law School Championship Tennis Team

The Sigma Nu Championship Handball Team

The Intramural Board



The Delta Tau Delta Championship Basketball Team

The Kappa Sigma Championship Golf Team

In this manner the department stresses participation in varsity sports as being of primary importance. At the end of each school year, a grand trophy is awarded to the house which shows the outstanding development in both varsity and intramural phases of the University Athletic Program.

For the 1954-55 season the award for the top house in Intramurals went to Delta Upsilon. The Delts won the Intercollegiate Trophy for contributing the largest turn out for intercollegiate athletics. The final tabulations showed that the Delts also had the greatest overall achievement in both departments; they were, therefore, awarded the Grand Championship Trophy signifying their all-round athletic ability.

By the end of the first semester of the 1955-56 season, Kappa Sigma was in first place followed closely by Sigma Nu and Sigma Chi both of whom were in challenging positions.

The Delta Tau Delta Championship Wrestling Team

Championship trophies in the various sports were won by the Law School in tennis, Phi Psi in football, and Sigma Chi in swimming. Kappa Sigma walked off with the golf trophy, while the ZBT's extended their streak by winning the table tennis championship again. Wrestling and basketball were won by the Delts, and handball by the Sigma Nu's.

The Washington and Lee Intramural Program is thus one of many and varied interests. It is felt that the added stimulus to intramurals which has been more apparent these past few years will continue to foster an ever expanding program as an integral part of our extracurricular activities.

We add our congratulations to those who have worked to make this past year so successful with respect to participation in the spirit of true sportsmanship.

BUILT ON QUALITY BOOKS

We, the largest law publishers in the south, have built our reputation on legal publications of outstanding editorial quality, on fine workmanship in printing and binding, and on a prompt and personal service to thousands of valued customers.

No better example of mental and physical workmanship in a legal publication can be found than:

MICHIE'S JURISPRUDENCE OF VIRGINIA AND WEST VIRGINIA

(24 Vols . . . . $420.00)

It contains all the law of Virginia and West Virginia in a concise, accurate, readable form; and is truly the culmination of fifty years of experience in legal writing and publication.

Our Virginia representative, Mr. Durwood B. Wheeler, 4207 Chamberlayne Ave., Apt. 4, Richmond 27, Va., will gladly demonstrate, on appointment, the features of this great set of books.
